We would say to
COUNTRY MERCHANTS
who design going East to purchase, that we would esteem it a favor if they would honor us with a call before leaving for New York and Boston, as we feel quite confident that we can convince them that it is to their interest to purchase in Milwaukee.

DAILY SENTINEL.

The Marble of Lake Superior.

Some time ago a gentleman of Lake Superior placed upon our table a very beautiful specimen of marble taken from a newly discovered ledge of that material in the vicinity of Marquette, and we had the honor, we believe, of making the first announcement of its existence to the world. By a late number of the Superior Journal we perceive that still other discoveries have been made, and of a quality that makes it not the least important of the wonderful treasures of that interesting region. We quote the following:

We have seen specimens that rival in softness of hue the Dove Italian; in fineness of texture, the famed Sienna, in delicacy of tracery, the vein Italian; in bird's eye beauty the Brocatello and in gorgeousness of figure, the inimitable Egyptian. New varieties are constantly being brought to light, and it is safe enough to hazard the opinion that in no part of the world has a greater variety of marble been found within so limited a space, as in the deposits in the neighborhood of Marquette. We are gratified to learn that one of our citizens is at present actively engaged in developing these veins, and we hope soon to chronicle discoveries that shall place the practicability of working them beyond cavil.—Their location near the Iron Mountain Railroad, and their proximity to good water power, are additional inducements to their speedy developments.

The speaker said that editors were like other shrewd men, who had to live with their eyes and ears open. He related a story of an editor who started a paper in a new village at the West.—The town was infested by gamblers, whose presence was a source of annoyance to the citizens, who told the editor that if he did not come out against them, that they would not patronize his paper. He replied that he would give them a "smasher" next day. Sure enough his next issue contained the promised "smasher," and on the following morning the redoubtable editor, with scissors in hand, was seated in his sanctum cutting out news, when in walked a large man with a club in his hand, and demanded to know if the editor was in. "No, sir," was the reply, "he has stepped out; take a seat and read the paper; he will return in a minute." Down sat the indignant man of cards, crossed his legs with his club between them, and commenced reading a paper. In the meantime the editor quietly vamosed down stairs, and at the landing below he met another excited man with a club in his hand, who asked him if the editor was in. "Yes, sir," was the prompt response; "you will find him seated up stairs reading a newspaper." The latter, on entering the room, with a furious oath, commenced a violent assault on the former, which was resisted with equal ferocity. The fight was continued until they had both rolled to the foot of the stairs, and pounded each other to their heart's content.

About Hoops.—A lady, whose garments formed an immense circumference, entered a store in Boston, and in doing so prostrated some dozen flower pots containing valuable plants, which were ruined. The store keeper intends to sue the lady for damages, so that the law may settle how large a space a lady's circumambients may occupy.

—The Persimmon county debating club out west, are debating the question Which is the proudest—a girl with her first beau, or a woman with her first baby?

—A young man directing a letter to his lady love, wrote her name thus, "You Ness Brown." The postmaster was at a loss to know what to do with the letter, but he finally sent it to You Rope by the pack it.

—Old Joe Bartlett honestly says—"To see an old man with one foot in the grave and the other quivering on the brink, laughing at morals and ridiculing religion, is the most detestable picture of human depravity which the heart can conceive or the imagination paint."

—Pride, under whatever form it may show itself, is of the devil; and though family pride may not be its most odious manifestation, even that child bears a sufficiently ugly likeness of its father. But family feeling is a very different thing, and may exist as strongly in humble as in high life.

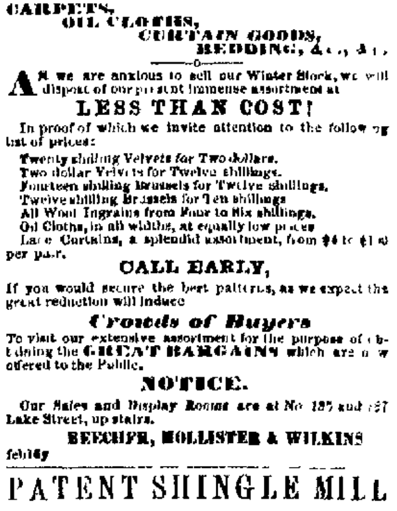
PATENT SHINGLE MILL



EVARTS & BUTLER,
PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.
THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.
The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives its speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle width-wise relieves the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.
The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.
This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

"I REPEAT THAT I NEVER CAN AND NEVER WILL VOTE, AND NO EARTHLY POWER WILL EVER MAKE ME VOTE TO SPREAD SLAVERY OVER TERRITORY WHERE IT DOES NOT EXIST."—HENRY CLAY

"I heartily concur in all movements which have for their object to repair the mischief arising from the violation of good faith in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. I am opposed to Slavery in the abstract, and upon principles sustained and made habitual by settled conviction. While I feel inflexible in the belief that it ought not to be interfered with where it exists under the shield of State sovereignty, I am as inflexibly opposed to its extension on this continent beyond its present limits."—JOHN C. FREMONT

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

By telegraph we learn that Douglas' bill in relation to Kansas has passed the Senate. The bill is evidently intended as a plaster to the wounded feelings of Northern democrats, who feel the storm rising among the people, and who know that there is cause for indignation. The bill provides for a commission of five persons to take a new census in Kansas, preparatory to a new election of a Convention. Such commissioners as Pierce would appoint would doubtless make things all right for Slavery. Meantime, the bill does nothing to prevent the Ruffians from murdering and driving out the Free State settlers. It is too late to try such experiments with the people.

The report on the Brooks case is to come up on Tuesday next, when we shall see whether free speech is to be vindicated on the floor of Congress.

We give a letter from Mr. GREELEY, shewing who the Northern doughfaces were who aided in killing the bill for the admission of Free Kansas.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

This day, eighty years ago, the DECLARATION of INDEPENDENCE, which declared the Colonies absolved from their allegiance to the British Crown, was agreed to by the Congress at Philadelphia, and signed by the representatives of the respective Colonies, who pledged to their country and to each other their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor, for the support of that Declaration. That pledge was nobly redeemed. Throughout a long war with the most powerful nation on earth, they stood by each other with unfaltering trust, and the end thereof found here a Free Republic.

Annually, since then, the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration has been celebrated by popular rejoicings, by gatherings of the people to take each other by the hand and talk over the glorious past, by music, parades, bonfires, fireworks, and other demonstrations of joyful commemoration,—and the 4th of July 1776, is regarded as the natal day of the Republic.

Eighty years have rolled away. The last of the Signers of that Declaration has long since gone down to the grave, leaving a glorious memory. The survivors of the Revolutionary struggle are few indeed. We can remember when, at the annual gatherings of the people, a few tottering, white-haired men were to be found occupying honored seats on the platform, and have seen their faces flush with the glow of ancient fires renewed, when the orators of the day alluded to their heroic achievements. But the number of these survivors has dwindled to hundreds, almost to tens. They have answered to their last roll-call!

Eighty years have rolled away; and the Anniversary finds the Republic, founded by our fathers, a nation of THIRTY-ONE STATES, containing nearly THIRTY MILLIONS of people, and ranking among the first of the Powers of the world, strong in all the elements which go to make up the prosperity of a nation.

Hitherto, through all these eighty years, the people have met in their several localities, and listened to orations upon the subject of the sufferings undergone, the privations endured, the bravery exhibited by the men of the Revolution—upon the value of the inheritance thus won—and upon the character which ought to be sustained by the people, if they would preserve that inheritance and hand it down to their children.—Doubtless to-day, all over the land, such orations will be delivered, and we would not for a moment mar the harmony of a single gathering—we would not check the utterance of a patriotic sentiment, or repress any feeling of just exultation over the real, acknowledged greatness of our common country.

But we cannot—charge us with inditing a political lecture if you will—we cannot, we dare not, overlook or forget the fact that there is a drawback to all this. In the old days of '76, the strongest appeals which came to the ears of the Congress, were from patriot statesmen who pointed northward to where the sound of the cannon was heard. They brought before the imagination the din of arms, the smoke of battle, the crashing of the deadly charge, the ring of the rifle, the burning of dwellings and wanton destruction of property,—and cried—Our brethren are already in arms! Why stand we here idle? Such feelings animated old PATRICK HENRY as with flashing eyes, he exclaimed, "GIVE ME LIBERTY, OR GIVE ME DEATH!"

We cannot, dare not overlook the fact that, to the Westward, the battle of liberty is being fought over again. Our latest advices are to the effect that on this day, large bodies of men whose worst crime—whose only offence—is the love of Freedom, gathered at Topeka, on the plains of Kansas, will be attacked by a horde of ruffians, whose outrages have been culminating for two years, and whose greatest strength is, that in this land, consecrated to Freedom, they are upheld and encouraged by a Government founded to establish justice and protect rights. Should such a collision take place—which God forbid!—may he give the victory to the Right. But should it take place, and our brethren there be overwhelmed and butchered, we would not, we will not—have it in our memory that on their day of suffering we were joining in congratulations over a peaceful, happy, united and glorious country.—Others may do as they please, being answerable to their own consciences. The wrongs of Kansas—the outrages upon and murders of our brethren there—are a reality—ever present in our minds, and they are worse, a hundred times, than the wrongs inflicted upon the people of the colonies, for which they thought Revolution and seven years of war called for, and for eighty years we have praised them for it with united hearts and voices.

We cannot celebrate or be joyful on this 4th of July. A great many people will meditate to-day, and take counsel together, how they ought to act, so that the next anniversary may find peace in all our borders, and justice prevailing in the land.

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENTS.—The Annual Commencement of the STATE UNIVERSITY at Madison takes place on Wednesday, July 23rd. Hon. J R. DOOLITTLE, late Judge of the Circuit Court, delivers the Address before the Societies.

The Commencement Exercises of BELOIT COLLEGE take place on the 8th of July. Prof. Joseph Haven of Hamhert College is to deliver the Oration.

Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Dividend.

We omitted to mention yesterday that, as per advertisement, the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Co. have declared a dividend of 5 per cent from the earnings of the last six months. They have some $40,000 over besides the dividend, and the Sinking Fund for the redemption of their bonds is amply provided for. The earnings of the road for June past are over $62,000.

The trains now run to Mazomanie, 122 miles west, and the work of grading and laying track is proceeding steadily. The stock is now a capital investment, but when the road reaches the Mississippi, it must be one of the best in the country.

Mr. Buchanan and Henry Clay.

We publish to-day the article some time ago referred to by the News, as from the Louisville Journal, giving the history of Mr. Buchanan's connection with the infamous slander of HENRY CLAY. The article needs no comment of ours. We only commend it to the careful perusal of our readers; and after reading it, let them ask themselves whether Mr. Buchanan is therein exhibited in such a light as to call forth any remarkable enthusiasm from any lover of justice and truth.

SIGNIFICANT.—Mr. HAVEN, of Erie Co, N. Y., is Mr. FILLMORE'S right-hand man. Of the firm of Fillmore, Hall & Haven, so well known for their powers of deglutition, he is in Congress, the mouth-piece of Southern Know Nothingism, and of Northern Fillmoreism, which amount to the same thing, "only more so," for those who swear by the latter at least had the advantage of early training in the principles of Freedom. How Western New York ever came to produce such a firm is a mystery.

To this Mr. Haven is doubtless to be ascribed the defeat of the Kansas Admission Bill in the House. In some remarks made by him upon the bill, he said

"He should for the present oppose the admission of Kansas as a Free State. He could not determine, with the imperfect lights before him, which party was to blame in Kansas."

Henceforward no one can question Mr. Haven's right to the position of "Know Nothing." His title is on record.

A Vote on the Cars.

☞ Will the editor of the Kenosha Democrat inform us how the vote stood, taken by him on the cars between Horicon and Milwaukee on Thursday? Rumor says it stood Fremont 43, Buchanan 25, and that all who could not speak English were counted for Buchanan.

A STEAMBOAT VOTE.—A friend who reached the city last night, informs us that a vote taken on the steamer Excelsior, on the Mississippi, on Wednesday, resulted as follows—37 for Fremont, 17 for Buchanan; and of the latter 4 were postmasters, and 2 land office clerks.

Col. Fremont and the North Americans.

We subjoin the letter which Col. Fremont has addressed to the Committee of the late American Convention, held in New York, in reply to the announcement of his nomination by that Convention. It is distinct and appropriate in its language, and puts the matter upon the right ground. The spirit which it breathes, of union for the common cause, and which indeed animates the people everywhere, is the sure pledge of our triumph.

"NEW YORK, June 30, 1856.

"GENTLEMEN—I received with deep sensibility your communication, informing me that a convention of my fellow-citizens, recently assembled in this City, have nominated me their candidate for the highest office in the gift of the American people; and I desire through you to offer to the members of that body, and to their respective constituencies, my grateful acknowledgment for this distinguished expression of confidence. In common with all who are interested in the welfare of the country, I had been strongly impressed with the generous spirit of conciliation which influenced the action of your assembly and characterises your note. A disposition to avoid all questions tending to defeat unanimity in the great cause, for the sake of which it was conceded that differences of opinion on less eventful questions should be held in abeyance, was evinced alike in the proceedings of your convention in reference to me, and in the manner by which you have communicated the result. In this course no sacrifice of opinion on any side becomes necessary.

"I shall in a few days be able to transmit you a paper, designed for all parties engaged in our cause, in which I present to the country my views of the leading subjects which are now put in issue in the contest for the Presidency. My confidence in the success of our cause is greatly strengthened by the belief that these views will meet the approbation of your constituents.

"Trusting that the national and patriotic feelings evinced by the tender of your co-operation in the work of regenerating the Government, may increase the glow of enthusiasm which pervades the country, and harmonize all elements in our truly great and common cause, I accept the nomination with which you have honored me, and am, gentlemen, very respectfully,

"Your fellow-citizen,
"J. C. FREMONT.

LAST EVENING'S PARADE.

At the five o'clock full dress parade, yesterday, about five hundred spectators were in the field, with a row of about two hundred carriages generally containing ladies, to witness the evolutions of the companies. The parade formed with the companies in the same order as given above for their encampment. The scene was fine beyond description from a point of view near the Guard Tent. The broad green field, fresh from the morning rain, the lines and groups of spectators, the military in their full dress uniforms, the white tents beyond, the dark grove in the back-ground, the martial music filling the air, and the glories of the setting sun over all, conspired to form a splendid picture, one which thousands will wish to witness to-day if everything is propitious.

Henry Clay and James Buchanan.

We hope, says the Louisville Journal, what we are now about to write will command the attention of all honest and honorable men, and especially of old line Whigs, the former supporters of Henry Clay and the present reverers of his memory. The boast has been made that the old-line Whigs will as a general rule support Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency. We shall see.

All of our old politicians have a vivid recollection of the leading men of the election of President by the House of Representatives in the early part of 1825. Mr. Clay was then a member of the House and he cast his vote and influence in favor of John Quincy Adams, who was elected over General Jackson and Mr. Crawford. Mr. Clay was subsequently selected by Mr. Adams as his Secretary of State. At a later period Mr. Clay was charged by his political enemies with having sold his vote to Mr. Adams for the Secretaryship, and we all know that this cruel and monstrous charge, though abundantly refuted in every form in which refutation was possible or conceivable, involved, to a great extent, the ruin of Mr. Clay's political fortunes.—But for that charge, he would afterwards have have been elected President of the United States almost by acclamation.

Foremost among those who charged that Mr. Clay's vote was given to Mr. Adams on account of a promise of the Secretaryship of State was Gen. Jackson. The General gave the name of Mr. Buchanan as his authority for the truth of the charge. Mr. Buchanan had held a private conversation with him upon the subject, making such statements as left no doubt upon the subject in the General's mind. In fact the General did not hesitate to say, after that interview, that Mr. Buchanan had come to him with full authority from Mr. Clay or his friends to propose terms to him in relation to their votes, that is to propose to vote for him for the Presidency if he could promise office to Mr. Clay. Of course Mr. Buchanan was called on to put into the form of a letter what he knew upon the subject and what he had stated to General Jackson. He accordingly wrote the letter which afterwards became famous in the controversy. That letter was most adroitly written with a view to relieve the author from the excessively painful position in which he stood. He dared not say that he had ever any authority from Mr. Clay or his friends to propose terms to Gen. Jackson, yet he carefully so shaped his language as to afford Mr. Clay's political enemies a pretext for repeating the atrocious calumny against him. He expressed his own belief of the bargain and corruption story. He said: "The facts are before the world that Mr. Clay and his particular friends made Mr. Adams President, and Clay Secretary of State. The people will draw their own inference from such conduct and the circumstances connected with it. They will judge of the cause from the effect."

Mr. Clay and his friends regarded Mr. Buchanan's letter as exculpating him and them from the charge of having authorised Mr. B. to propose terms to General Jackson in relation to their votes, and so indeed it did. And yet it was so cunningly written that the whole of Mr. Clay's political enemies throughout the nation considered it and treated it not as a vindication of the Kentucky statesman but as "confirmation strong" of the truth of the accusation against him. Thus the whole calumny originated in Mr. Buchanan's statement to General Jackson, and, when the author of the statement was required by Jackson or his organ to write it out in the shape of a letter, he so performed the appointed task, as, while shrinking from any direct confirmation of the impression he had previously given to Gen. Jackson, to afford a pretext to the whole Jackson party to assail Mr. Clay as a traitor to his country, and there was not a Jackson newspaper or a Jackson politician in the nation that did not treat Mr. Buchanan's letter as evidence of bargain, intrigue, and corruption between Mr. Adams and Mr. Clay.

The specific charge, as already stated, which was made against Mr. Clay, and which Mr. Buchanan was cited as a witness to prove, was that Mr. C. had proposed to make Gen. Jackson President, if he himself could be made Secretary of State. This charge, involving the inference that Mr. Clay did vote for Mr. Adams for the promise of the Secretaryship, was the charge by means of which the party, that Mr. Buchanan then acted with and ever afterwards acted with, broke down the greatest and best man of his age. And now, fellow countrymen, we ask you to mark the final development of facts. The real truth is, that instead of Mr. Clay's suggesting to Mr. Buchanan during the pendency of the Presidential election, in the House of Representatives, in 1825, that he and his friends would support Gen. Jackson if he could have the Secretaryship of State under him, Mr. Buchanan himself actually sought Mr. Clay, and, in the presence of a third gentleman, explicitly declared to him, that, in the event of his voting for Gen. Jackson and the election of the latter, he would have the Secretaryship.

Mr. Clay's intimate personal friends often heard him make this statement in the after years of his life, and we, with half a dozen others, heard him say in the Presidential campaign of 1844 that he would not be willing to die without leaving it on record. And he did not die without leaving it on record. A few years ago, Calvin Colton published the life of Henry Clay, in the preparation of which he visited Ashland and had free access to many of Mr. Clay's private papers. He devoted a considerable portion of his book to the old bargain, intrigue, and corruption story, and Mr. Clay wrote out one passage of it with his own hand. That passage was incorporated in the volume word for word as it came from the venerable statesman's pen. Let the American people read it and ponder upon it. Here it is:

> "Some time in January 1825, and not long before the election of President of the United States by the House of Representatives, the Hon. James Buchanan, then a member of the House, and afterwards many years a Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, who had been a zealous and influential supporter of Gen Jackson in the preceding canvass, and was supposed to enjoy his unbounded confidence, called at the lodgings of Mr. Clay, in the city of Washington. Mr. Clay was at the time in the room of his only messmate in the House, his intimate and confidential friend, the Hon R. P. Letcher, since Governor of Kentucky, then also a member of the House. Shortly after Mr Buchanan's entry into the room he introduced the subject of the approaching Presidential election, and spoke of the certainty of the election of his favorite, adding that he would form the most splendid cabinet that the country had ever had. Mr. Letcher asked, how could he have one more distinguished than that of Mr. Jefferson, in which were both Madison and Gallatin? Where would he be able to find equally eminent men? Mr. Buchanan replied 'he would not go out of this room for a Secretary of State,' looking at Mr. Clay. This gentleman (Mr. Clay) playfully remarked that he thought there was no timber there fit for a cabinet officer unless it were Mr. Buchanan himself.
> Mr. Clay, while he was so hotly assailed with the charge of bargain, intrigue, and corruption during the administration of Mr. Adams, notified Mr. Buchanan of his intention to publish the above occurrence, but by the earnest entreaties of that gentleman, he was induced to forbear doing so."

This passage, we repeat, was written by Mr. Clay's own hand. We learned the fact from Mr. Clay himself, from Mr. Colton, and from an eminently respected relative of Mr. Clay. The great Kentuckian, who had borne the weight of bitter calumny for more than twenty years, and seen his highest political hopes crushed and blasted by it, did not choose to submit to it longer out of tenderness to the reputation of an old political enemy; the deepest regret felt by his best friends is that he submitted to it so long. Mr. Buchanan, it appears, might, when called on for his testimony in 1826, have testified that Mr. Clay, far from having signified that he would support Gen. Jackson for the Presidency in consideration of the Secretaryship of State, had positively rejected such a bargain, proffered to him by Mr. Buchanan himself. Whatever of dishonor, whatever of infamy, there could be in bargain, intrigue and corruption, attached to Mr. Buchanan. We do not believe that he had any authority from General Jackson to say what he said to Mr. Clay, yet he professed to utter fact and not opinion. He undertook to assert, as from authority, that Gen. Jackson would form the most splendid cabinet the country had ever had, and that Mr. Clay, if he should support him, would be the Secretary of State.

Mr. Clay stated in the passage he wrote out for Colton's Biography of him, that, while he was so hotly assailed with the charge of bargain and corruption during the Adams Administration, he notified Mr. Buchanan of his intention to publish the occurrence in question, but was induced by that gentleman's earnest entreaties to forbear doing so. Mr. Colton said in his biography that he had understood that several times in later years Mr. Clay had intimated to Mr. Buchanan that it might be his duty to publish the facts; and that he was dissuaded from it by Mr. Buchanan. We also know that Mr. Clay often between 1825 and 1845 contemplated publishing the facts, and was vehemently urged by his political friends to do so as a matter of justice, not merely to his own fame, but to his party, and that he was prevented only by Mr. Buchanan's entreaties. Gov. Letcher, who was present at the interview in January, 1825, and heard all that passed, was always of the opinion that Mr. Clay ought to make the publication, and often told him so, but Mr. Clay was long suffering, and carried his generosity too far.

Mr. Letcher, it seems, after the interview of January, 1825, relieved Mr. Buchanan's apprehensions by the assurance that he would not publish the facts of the interview without Mr. Buchanan's consent. But so strong and deep was Mr. Letcher's conviction that the facts ought to be published, that he wrote to Mr. Buchanan upon the subject during the great Presidential conflict of 1844, declaring, however, in his letter that he would not violate the pledge he had originally given. Mr. Buchanan replied, deprecating the publication and requiring the observance of the pledge. The reply was made with Mr. Buchanan's characteristic cunning, and we give it below entire. One might think from the language of his letter, that he had no distinct recollection of the conversation with Mr. Clay in Mr. Letcher's room in January, 1825, and yet that very conversation, exceedingly emphatical as it was, had been, from the very first and through all the ensuing years, a matter of the deepest anxiety and even agitation to Mr. Buchanan, who, as Mr. Clay has testified under his hand, had earnestly entreated that it might not be given to the world. Here is Mr. Buchanan's letter to Mr. Letcher:

LANCASTER, June 27, 1844.

MY DEAR SIR:—I this moment received your very kind letter, and hasten to give it an answer. I cannot perceive what good purpose it would subserve Mr Clay to publish the private and unreserved conversation to which you refer. I was then his ardent friend and admirer, and much of this ancient feeling still survives, notwithstanding our political differences since. I did him ample justice, but no more than justice, both in my speech on Chilton's resolution, and in my letter in answer to Gen. Jackson.

I have not myself any very distinct recollection of what transpired in your room nearly twenty years ago, but doubtless I expressed a strong wish to himself, as I had done a hundred times to others, that he might vote for General Jackson, and if he desired it, become his Secretary of State. Had he voted for the General, in case of his election, I should most certainly have exercised any influence I might have possessed to accomplish this result, and this I should have done from the most disinterested, friendly and patriotic motives.

This conversation of mine, whatever it may have been, can never be brought home to Gen. Jackson. I never had but one conversation with him on the subject of the then pending election, and that upon the street, and the whole of it verbatim et literatim, when comparatively fresh upon my memory, was given to the public in my letter of August, 1827. The publication, then, of this private conversation could serve no other purpose than to embarrass me and force me prominently into the pending contest—which I desire to avoid.

You are certainly correct in your recollection. "You told me explicitly that you did not feel at liberty to give the conversation alluded to, and would not do so, under any circumstances, without my express permission." In this you acted, as you ever have done, like a man of honor and principle."

To show how the terrible exposition made by Mr. Clay in Colton's biography of him, was regarded at the time, we may mention the fact that, when it appeared, all the Democratic organs were startled by it. Mr. Buchanan was then no candidate for office, and on that account it created a less powerful impression than it would otherwise have done, but we vividly remember the sensation manifested by the Democratic papers, especially those of Pennsylvania. We copied into the Journal an article from the most prominent and influential of them all, declaring, as several of the rest did, that Mr. Buchanan must respond to and refute the charge made against him or expect to be dispensed with by his party. And we and hundreds of other Whig editors called upon him and defied him to respond while yet Henry Clay and R. P. Letcher were both living to meet any denial or equivocation that he might put forth. But he replied not. He uttered no word. He could not be induced either by the warning threats of political opponents to open his mouth. Humbly he bore from the greatest man then living upon the earth a published charge, which, if true, exhibited the most irredeemable infamy on his part.

And now we ask the old friends of Henry Clay, we ask the Old-Line Whigs, we ask all honorable men, we ask the whole American people what they think of James Buchanan and how they mean to act toward him? O, what a shame, what a burning shame, what an everlasting shame it would be, if the American nation, after having thrice rejected Henry Clay from the Presidency on account of a charge of bargain and corruption resting on the alleged authority of James Buchanan, and all because Mr. Clay listened to the earnest prayers of Mr. Buchanan, the real proposer of bargain and corruption, and spared him for nearly the lifetime of a generation, were now to elect that same Mr. Buchanan to the Presidency. Truly it would be almost enough to make a man sick of his species.

The Young Men's Meeting.

The News vents its spite against the Young Men who held the meeting at Young's Hall on Wednesday night by using the weapon characteristic of the admirers of Brooks and Herbert—slang. Let it abuse and ridicule it! Long ago, when the events were maturing in Boston which led to Independence, a party of boys waited upon Gen'l Gage, the British Commander, with their indignant protest against abuse by his troops.—That officer, surprised at their "audacity," told them that if the men were animated by the same spirit, Britain would find it difficult to conquer them." But he treated the boys civilly, and promised to redress their grievances. Now-a-days, when the young men protest, the leaders of the Tory party of these days abuse them, and call them names. Who is most disgraced by it?

The following letter, which explains itself, has been handed us for publication:

To the Secretary of the Young Men's Kansas Meeting:

WAUKESHA, July 2, 1856.

SIR:—At a meeting of the students of Carrol College, held on Saturday, June 28th, we were appointed to represent them in the meeting of to-night, but owing to circumstances, which were not then taken into consideration, we cannot conveniently be with you. We will say for your encouragement however, that, while we have been occupied for the most part, in studying the histories of civil and other commotions, which have shaken the world in centuries gone, we have still found time to study the character of those which are now endangering the free institutions of our own land.

Most heartily do we sympathise with you and your associates, in their efforts in behalf of freedom in Kansas, and, if it be necessary, in order to support that territory against the assaults of the slave power, and this pusillanimous administration, we are willing to throw aside our books, and shoulder the musket, and go forth to battle with the men of the North; to battle until Border Ruffians, from Atchison down to Frank Pierce and his very worthy companion in deeds of darkness—Preston S. Brooks, shall have appeased offended justice by the sacrifice of their blood.

We deem it very proper that the young men should speak forth their sentiments on the questions now agitating the American people. Their voice will be heard and felt throughout the land, while at the same time, they will give the world an example which shall not die. In the olden time young men dared even offer their lives on the altar of their country, and we are glad to see this patriotic spirit still alive in the breasts of American youth. While it lives there is hope—only let it be brought into action, and the clouds which now darken our political horizon will soon be rolled away forever.

Yours in the cause of Freedom,
IRVING McBEAN, }

☞ JAMES WEBB, a wealthy Englishman, and the original cultivator of the South Down race of sheep, is now exhibiting specimens of the breed at the Cattle Show in Paris. He was dressed in a peasant's blouse, under which he wore a magnificent chain, reaching to his girdle. Each link of the chain consisted of a gold medal received by the owner at some agricultural fair or other, as a prize for the excellence of his South Downs.

THE GERMANS IN WISCONSIN.—The Milwaukee Atlas, the leading organ of the Germans in the State, has abandoned the slave-driving Democracy, and come out boldly for Fremont and Freedom.—Detroit Tribune.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR. Mr. DOMSCHKE, the editor of the Atlas, was one of the four German editors in the Union who were in 1854 such strong Anti-Slavery men that they went for John P. Hale for President. They stand now, as then, for Freedom, but not alone—over 60 other German papers are for Fremont and Dayton.

Destructive Fire at Oshkosh—Loss $20,000!

About three o'clock this morning, the City Foundry and Machine Shop, on High Street, near the corner of Division Street, was discovered to be on fire, and before the citizens could be aroused and on the spot, the flames had obtained such headway as to utterly preclude the possibility of saving either the building or its contents. The establishment was owned by Messrs Williams & Stearns, and was said to be one of the most complete and best appointed in the State. The machinery was mostly new, and of the latest improvements. A large quantity of work, finished and unfinished, was destroyed.—A new steam engine—the best ever made in the city, had just been finished the day before, and was included in the general ruin. Loss estimated at not less than $12,000. No insurance.

The flames quickly communicated to the adjoining buildings, in one of which was Ward's Steel Plough Manufactory, which was totally destroyed, as was also the establishments of L. W. Cross, Pump Maker, and Davis, Moore and Fowler, Painters. The Steam Boiler Manufactory of Lester & Hastum was but slightly damaged.

Adjoining these was a large two and-a-half story building owned by Nelson Gill, and occupied by Messrs. Williamson & Brown, Wagon-Makers and Blacksmiths. In the upper part of this building was the hall of the S. of T. The building was entirely destroyed, with most of its contents. There was an insurance on the building for $600.

In addition to the immediate loss of property, which, in the aggregate, can not fall short of $20,000, this disaster is a sad blow to the general business of our town.

The sufferers are among our most enterprising and skilful manufacturers and mechanics—a class of citizens—who contribute in a most important degree to the general prosperity of the community.—Courier 1st.

Editorial Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.
Kansas in the House.

WASHINGTON, June 30

Free Kansas in the House was most unexpectedly put under the feet of the Border Ruffians to-day by one majority. All the Buchananites but Mr. Hickman of Pennsylvania, and all the Fillmorites but Mr. Moore of Ohio, voting together against her, and making 107 Nays to 106 Yeas on the final passage of the bill to admit her under her Topeka Constitution. Our friends triumphed on five or six preliminary votes, Messrs. Barclay and Parker voting with them awhile and then turning against them. Mr. Parker is understood to have observed that the Republicans were making too much capital out of Kansas. Messrs. Bayard, Clarke, Edwards, Milward and Scott sustained Free Kansas throughout. Messrs. Haven, Whitney, John Wheeler and John Williams of New York, Broome of Pennsylvania, Scott Harrison and Dunn went with Messrs. Herbert, Brooks, Rust, and their Pro-Slavery party, throughout. Messrs. Dunn and Douglas took sweet counsel together by the hour, and were the twin consuls of the Border Ruffian forces.—There were sixteen absentees, waving sick and paired; two pairs voted at first, but fell off to dinner before the final trial. Had all been present the result would not have been improved.—There is an effort to reconsider to-morrow, but I fear without success. There is no remaining hope for Kansas from Congress. Her last reliance must be on the generous hearts and votes of American Freemen.

SECOND DISPATCH.

The Slave Democracy are firing cannon and parading the streets this evening, in exultation over the defeat of Free Kansas.

Mr. Douglas has adopted Mr. Toombs' bill in lieu of his own; and means to put it through the Senate on Wednesday. I think he must wait a little. His report to-day was monstrous in the audacity of its misrepresentations. Mr. Wade will speak. H. G.

Kilbourn City—Dam and Water Power.

The river where the Dam is to be put in is about 400 feet wide, with an average depth of twelve to fifteen feet, and a current of four or five miles an hour. The dam is to raise the water eight feet. From these facts it will be seen that the water-power will be immense.—There is a small stream which comes into the river from the west, just below the dam, with level land a quarter of a mile wide and a mile back. It is intended to take the water through a race along the north side of this valley, as far west as may be necessary for all the saw-mills needed, and use small stream for a tail-race to return the water to the river. Other mills and machinery will be built upon the east bank of the river. The west abutment of the dam is already in, costing four or five thousand dollars, and there is a large amount of timber on hand to be used in prosecuting the work. There is no doubt the water-power created will be worth many times the cost of the dam, which alone insures the completion of the work. It is the intention to have it completed about the time the Railroad shall be completed to this place, so that machinery, and other things needed for the water power, may easily be brought here.—Wisconsin Mirror.

PROPELLER EVERGREEN CITY.—This new propeller has just been launched at the ship yard of the builders, Messrs. Peck & Masters. Her owners are John Bull of Sheboygan, and J. F. Kirkland of this city. She has just been measured by the Custom House officers and her dimensions are as follows: Length 192,29 feet, beam 27,50 feet; hold 10,8 feet, and her tonnage 624,23 95ths tons. She is a staunch, well built craft, with capacity for 6 000 barrels of flour, and a credit to the place whose soubriquet she bears, the city of Sheboygan.—Cleveland Herald, 27th.

STILL THEY COME.—The new propeller Charles Mears, built by Luther Moses for Charles Mears & Co., of Chicago, is lying in the river and about ready to put to sea. Her length is 127,82 feet, breadth of beam 26,43, and 8,75 feet hold. Her tonnage is 272 and 26 95ths tons. She is intended we understand, for the lumber and coasting trade of Lake Michigan.—Ib.

THREE NEW PROPELLERS.—Three new propellers, named respectively the Araxes, Orontes, and Euphrates, which have been built at this port the past winter—two by Fred. Jones and the third by Bidwell and Banta, for the Buffalo and Toledo Transportation line, and owned by the Southern Michigan and New York Central Railroads, are about completed, and will be out in a few weeks. They are all well built and handsome vessels, of about 575 tons burthen each. Buf. Courier.

CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCT OF WOOL IN THE UNITED STATES.—The U. S. Economist gives some statistics of the produce and consumption of Wool in the United States, which will be interesting to our readers. It gives the statistics of the raw material manufactured in five of the most important woollen manufactories in Massachusetts, which make the following exhibit:

	Lbs. Wool.
Lowell Manufacturing Company uses	3,482,000
Middlesex	1,716,000
Bay State	3,600,000
Manchester	1,800,000
Pacific	750,000
Total	10,698,000

The whole product of wool, per last census, in the Union was 52,516,959 lbs. Thus the above five mills use one-fifth of all the wool grown in the Union, that is to say, the product of 4,000,000 sheep, representing capital of $16,000,000, in addition to the value of land employed in raising them. The whole State of Ohio has 4,000,000 sheep, which give 10,196,871 lbs., the whole of which is required to serve five mills in Massachusetts. The State of Michigan has 746,435 sheep which give 2,143,283 lbs of wool, not quite enough to supply the Manchester and Pacific mills alone. The Bay state swallow up the whole product of Vermont. New York produces 10,671,891 lbs of wool, and uses 12,538,786 lbs. The product and consumption of each State is as follows, according to the census

	Produces. lbs.	Uses. lbs
New England	7,005,509	48,119,029
New York	10,071,691	12,539,736

TONICS WON'T DO!

THEY never did do more than give temporary relief and they never will. It is because they don't touch the cause of the disease. The CAUSE of all ague and billious diseases is the atmospheric poison called Miasma or Malaria. Neutralize this poison by its NATURAL ANTIDOTE, and all disease caused by it disappears at once. Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure is this Antidote to Malaria, and moreover it is a perfectly harmless medicine. The certificate of the celebrated chemist, J. R. Chilton, of New York, to this effect, is attached to every bottle; therefore if it does no good it can do no harm,

This is more than can be said of Quinine, Arsenic, or any tonic in existence, as their use is ruinous to the constitution and brings on DUMB AGUE, which never allows a person to feel perfectly well for a single moment. In illustration of these truths I annex some extracts from a letter just received from a Physician:

GEORGETOWN, OHIO March 17, 1856.

JAS. A. RHODES Esq—Dear Sir—Yours of the 2d inst, is at hand. The Cure arrived late last year, and the difficulty in getting any one to try it was greatly increased from the fact that a remedy had been introduced which was growing in favor with the public, as being better than using Quinine—not knowing I presume that the remedy they used to escape taking Quinine, contained the DRUG ITSELF!

This remedy (known as "Smith's Tonic,") would invariably BREAK an Ague, but it did not CURE it, as it would often return with renewed vigor. This one circumstance I deemed in your favor, if I could institute a test comparison between it and your CURE. The following is the result:

Three persons took your "Cure," all of which were cases of "Quotidian Intermittent Fever," of many weeks standing. They had tried Quinine, and other remedies, occasionally missing a chill, but it was (as in all such cases) slowly wearing them out, and laying the foundation of other and severer maladies. I did succeed in effecting a radical cure of all three of these cases with your remedy, and they have not had a chill since. In all three of these cases the "Smith's Tonic" had been used, and would, as before stated, break the chill, but after a period or two had elapsed it would return.

I think there will be no difficulty now in giving to your "Cure" the vantage ground of any other remedy now in use here, &c., &c.

WILLIAM BUCKNER, M. D.

RHODES' FEVER and AGUE CURE, or ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA, the only harmless remedy in existence, is equally certain as a PREVENTATIVE, as a "CURE."—Take it when you feel the chills coming on, and you will never have a single one.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

TO THOSE who are afflicted with this disagreeable and baffling malady, we would state, that after years of hitherto unavailing research, a medicine has been discovered which will, in every case, effect a certain and permanent cure of this dreaded disease. It is not a quack nostrum prepared to extract money from sufferers, for the proprietor offers to refund the money if a cure is not effected after following the directions. He is assured by the evidence of hundreds of cures which they have effected, that this medicine is in reality the remedy so long desired in the Western country. This valuable medicine is prepared in the form of a pill, from the bark of a shrub, which has proved to be a perfect antidote to Malaria. They are simple and plain in their nature, powerful and active in their operation, and perfectly harmless to the system, having no other than a specific effect upon the disease which is truly wonderful. Some persons have stated that these pills must contain arsenic, or some powerful mineral, owing to their quick effect in curing this disease. The proprietor would state that he will pay one thousand dollars to any chemist who will find one particle of mineral in this composition.

Certificates of cure from persons of the highest respectability can be obtained by calling at the Drug Store of HENRY FESS, Jr., No. 195 East Water street.

N. B. One great recommendation for these pills are, that they only require about five to effect a cure. Enquire for THAYER'S OMEGA PILL, for the immediate cure of chills and fever or intermittent fevers of every description. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by FRED. W. THAYER, 697 Washington street, Boston.

THE ONLY MEDAL AWARDED

BY THE NEW YORK EXHIBITION TO THE ENGlish or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers, has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extent.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health, is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I can, with truth, say there is nothing in a traveller's baggage so essential to the comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce."

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their Sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable, as well as the most wholesome, Sauce made."

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has ed to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

☞ THE THOUSANDS whose constitutions have been ruined, and their systems poisoned by the use of Mercury, should give the following their earnest attention:

DR GILES, Newton Hamilton, Pa., May, 1851, said:—"I have used, myself, half a dozen bottles of Hoofland's German Bitters for Liver Complaint and diseases of a nervous character, resulting from the use of Mercury. I was poisoned and afflicted with spasms from the use of this latter article. The German Bitters is the first article from which I obtained any relief. I have also given the article to many dyspeptics, with the most salutary result. I think as many more bottles will cure me."

Gentlemen:—Your Carter's Spanish Mixture has performed a remarkable cure in the person of a servant man, afflicted with Scrofula in the very worst form. So bad he become, that his eyes were entirely closed, and had been so for more than a year! As a last resort, as everything else had failed, it was resolved to try the mixture. We administered it according to directions, and wonderful to say, a perfect cure has been effected. I am satisfied that no medicine equals "Carter's Spanish Mixture" as a purifier of the blood. It is creating quite an excitement here, and sells very rapidly. Send another lot by Railroad. Yours truly,

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Friday Morning, July 4.

CITY MATTERS.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOTICE.

SPECIAL Invitation from the citizens and Fire Department of the City of Beaver Dam, to attend the Celebration to be held at that place on the 4th inst., having been accepted by the Fire Department of this city, notice is therefore given that the several Fire Companies will assemble on MARKET SQUARE at 6 o'clock on Friday morning, from thence to the La Crosse Railroad, in time to take the cars at 7 o'clock.

The Company from Janesville will arrive in the evening train on Thursday, and be received by Oregon Company No. 8.

J. C. GOODRICH, Chief Engineer

Milwaukee July 2d, 1856

POLICE COURT, JULY 3.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE

Edward Martin, drunk, fined $1. J. H. Coolidge, fast driving on bridge, fined $5. Abner C. Knapp, charged with adultery, discharged from custody, the prosecuting witness not found, after diligent search and enquiry.

What is to be done to-day.

There being no parade or celebration of any kind in town to day, a great many of our citizens are bound for the interior of the State for pleasure and patriotism. The Fire Department and the Military companies of Maj. Nunnemacher's battalion go to Beaver Dam to help celebrate the completion of the La Crosse & Milwaukee Rail Road to that thriving town. A train at 7 A. M. is provided for them, while a great many of our citizens will go in the regular morning train at 8.30. The railroad Company and the citizens of Beaver Dam have made ample preparations to receive all comers.

Those who wish can go from Horicon on the Horicon R. R. to Waupun, and see the country and the people, or from the Junction to Fond du Lac and snuff the breezes of Lake Winnebago, or from Beaver Dam go to Fox Lake where there is to be a grand gathering.

The Milwaukee & Watertown R. R. will carry many out for a day in the country, starting at 8.10 A. M.

The Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. will take many to Madison to witness the Regatta, and many will go to attend celebrations and meetings at other places on and near the line of the road.

The Sunday School children of St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church, go out for the day to Wauwatosa.

The Lake Shore Rail Road takes excursionists to Chicago at half fare and many will go down to take a look at the Military Encampment, while others will stop at Racine and Kenosha, where the day is to be celebrated.

In town, the boys of various growth with the usual variety of villainous saltpetre combinations will have it all their own way, while a great many people will make the day one of rest and quiet, and we understand that a large number of stores will be closed.

A Card.

The Young Men desire to return their hearty thanks to T. B. Mason, Esq., Music Dealer, for the use of one of his best Melodeons, which he kindly loaned them on the occasion of their meeting, Wednesday evening, and to the young ladies who accompanied the instrument with singing. Neither would they forget the kindness of Prof. Biederman, who presided at the melodeon, with grace and skill. Their encouraging actions will ever be held in grateful remembrance.

ENGINE CO. NO. 6.—The boys of Engine Co. No. 6, who had announced and made preparations for a grand Independence Ball to night, have given up the idea and join the other companies in the Excursion to Beaver Dam to day. They will be on hand for the festivities there to night, and we hope will have a good time.

STREET COMMISSIONERS' ORDERS.—The Fifth Ward Aldermen have ordered Scott street from Grove to Beverly graded and sidewalks put down. Also the sidewalk on east side of Reed street, from Virginia to Pierce, to be relaid. Also, declared lots 11 and 12, Block 22, Nil Proper, nuisances.

Also they advertise for proposals to July 9th for grading Monroe street, between Walker and Scott streets, and for filling a large number of nuisance lots.

[Advertisement.]

ATTENTION!

THE Citizens of Milwaukee will please remember that the card of P. ADLER & NEWHOUER is something more than a sham advertisement, as they are about retiring from the business, and are selling Goods at less than New York Jobbing prices. All that they ask is to give them a call. jy4d94dlf

REFRIGERATOR

THE public are invited to call and examine the above beautiful article before purchasing elsewhere, being the only kind made in the world that are perfectly free from Moisture, Mould, Must, and Impure Flavor.

The ice chamber is so constructed that a current of air is admitted, which coming in contact with the cold surface of the chamber, the moisture is condensed and a dry current of cold air is produced, passing into the preserving chamber at the bottom—then as the warmth is extracted from the articles placed therein, it expands and rises through the wire shelves, absorbing the moisture, and passing out at the highest point into the external atmosphere, thus maintaining a continual current of dry cold air, increasing the preserving quality 10 to 15 degrees (that is to say, if the temperature is 50 degrees and dry) it will preserve meats and vegetables better than a moist temperature at 45 degrees.

Prairie du Chien Land Agency.

THE UNDERSIGNED having purchased an interest in the Prairie du Chien, (lower town) offers on reasonable terms two hundred (200) lots, situated near the depot grounds of the M. & M. R. R. Co. I am ready to offer inducements that cannot be surpassed in the State, both as to price, terms and location, to all wishing to purchase a site for business or a desirable residence.

The City of Prairie du Chien being the

and situated on the banks of the Mississippi river, tributary to which is the whole State of Iowa and Minnesota, it is unnecessary to make any comments, for it is too evident that it must be the second city of Wisconsin.

To any person wishing to make investments, I would say that I have the agency of a large amount of desirable lots owned by the American Transportation Company, in addition to my own, and hereby offer my services to any who desire to make an investment that will prove that Prairie du Chien is the Point to Double Your Money in Twelve Months.

To my old friends, Railroad Conductors and all others, I will say—call and see me, and you will be sure to be rewarded.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Passage of Douglas' Kansas Bill.

WASHINGTON, July

SENATE.—Several slight amendments were adopted during the night, others rejected.

Mr. Geyer, of Mo., offered an amendment to the effect that no law shall be made or have force or effect which shall require a test oath, or any oath, to support any act of Congress, or any other legislative body as qualifications for any civil office of public trust, or for any employment or profession, or serve as a juror, or vote at election, or which shall impose any tax upon, or condition to exercise the right of suffrage by any qualified voter, or which shall restrain or prohibit the free discussion of any law or subject of legislation in the Territory, or the free exercise of opinion thereon by the people of the territory.

This gave rise to a debate, involving questions of Squatter Sovereignty, and whether Congress ought to interfere as proposed, it having left the people free to settle their own affairs.

Mr. Cass said some of the acts passed by the Assembly of Kansas were disgraceful to the age. How could the people properly pass laws unless they had the right of free discussion?

Geyer's amendment was adopted—only three nays, namely, Brown, Fitzpatrick and Mason.

Mr. Wilson's amendment to form part of the proceedings was rejected, nays 25, yeas 8.

Mr. Seward offered a substitute admitting Kansas with the Topeka constitution—rejected, yeas, Bell, of N. H., Collamer, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Seward, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson. Nays 36. The bill as amended by Geyer was finally passed—yeas 33, nays 12, namely, Bell, of N. H., Collamer, Dodge, Durkee, Fessenden, Foote, Foster, Hale, Seward, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson.

10,000 copies of the bill were ordered to be printed.

Adjourned at 8 o'clock.

The Commissioners are to be appointed by the President, with the advice, and by the consent of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 3

Senate.—The President pro tem took the chair at noon. No Senator present beside himself—the only persons on the floor, were the Secretary, Sergeant-at-arms, one door keeper, and two pages in the galleries, and one reporter and two spectators. The chair announced the signing of several enrolled bills, including the Kansas bill, when, in accordance with the previous understanding, the Senate adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.—A message was received from the Senate announcing the passage of the Kansas bill. Mr. Campbell, in response to a question of Mr. Kimball's, said he intended to call up the report of the select committee, relative to the assault on Mr. Sumner on Tuesday next, but that he would not then move the previous question. The friends of the parties involved desire a discussion.

Mr. Clingman said there would be a discussion.

Mr. Campbell said he would move the previous question on Wednesday.

KANSAS REVISITED.

GARVEY HOUSE, Topeka, June 22

To the Editor of the Chicago Tribune:—

I left Topeka on Sunday, a week ago, for Waubansa and Manhattan, in company with Mr. Topliffe, General of the Free State forces, Mr. Clarke, private Secretary of Gov. Charles Robinson, and Dr. J. P. Root of the Connecticut Colony.

By some inadvertance I posted only a portion of Dr. Root's narrative by the last Eastern mail. I enclose the conclusion.

Mr. Topliffe is a young man, a citizen of Providence, Rhode Island, served in the Mexican war with credit, was present at several of General Scott's most celebrated battles, and is the most accomplished disciplinarian we ever had in Kansas.

Since his arrival in the Territory, he has drilled our forces in every part of it, and prepared them to meet the crisis like soldiers when it comes—they have always been prepared to meet it like men.

For the end is not yet. As long as Atchison's three million's of dollars lasts, as long as the Slave Power is willing to contribute to our enslavement, as long as the Democratic party is the dominant party, so long will there be anarchy for Kansas.

NEWS FROM NORTHERN KANSAS

There is trouble brewing in the Northern part of the State.

On Saturday last a gang of Pro-Slavery propagandists headed by Major Richardson, a resident of Missouri, and member of the Shawnee Legislature, held a secret meeting in Doniphan county, and took an oath to expel and lynch several Free State men in the neighborhood.

We had a spy in their camp.

He warned the men whom the conspirators had marked.

One of their intended victims has just arrived in Topeka.

Not only our spy but a Pro Slavery man sent him warning of the designs of the propagandists.

The gentleman informs me that the Free State settlers in that sections of the State, exasperated by a long series of harrassing annoyances inflicted under the guise of "law and order" are longing for an opportunity to retaliate on their oppressors.

"PRO BONO PUBLICO."

W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY, office 230 East Water Street, 2 doors south of Walker House. I beg to return thanks to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me during the time I have been engaged in the real estate business, and I do so with all the more pleasure on account of having received the most striking proofs of the manner in which my services are appreciated. Those who have patronized me know well, and will cheerfully testify to the advantages which I offer. My principles are straight forward, honorable and honest. I never require any one leaving the sale of property in my hands, to sign any written obligation of whatever nature or kind soever, binding him to pay a commission anyhow but adopt the principle of "No sale no charge." The great increase of business has compelled me to enlarge my office, which, now being finished, is the most convenient and desirable in the city, and as the list of property I offer for sale is second to none, I would strongly recommend those who wish to be well served to make my office their head quarters. I have prepared a new map of the city which exhibits at one glance, and in striking colors, all the best and most desirable property offered for sale. may17

Famous Chance for a New Comer or an Old Settler!

VALUABLE FARM AND WATER POWER for sale. I will sell one of the best farms in the State with a moderate cash payment, and on easy terms, or exchange same for city property.

Said farm is situated 20 miles from Milwaukee, on a Plank Road, and 3 miles from a depot on the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, and comprises 360 acres, of which 280 acres are fenced, improved, and partly cropped. There are on said farm one frame house, one log house, one large frame barn and any number of sheds, &c., a fine orchard, beautiful springs and a running stream with a considerable fall, the dam is built and a large portion of timber collected on the spot for the erection of a mill, which in that neighborhood would prove a largely paying investment. The property is owned jointly by two parties who are desirous of dividing and settling up their joint interests, and for this reason offers a rare chance for an enterprising man to make a good strike.

FOWLERS & HORN'S GALLERY!

NO. 221 1-2 EAST WATER ST., (Empire Block) to examine their beautiful and finished specimens of Photograph's, Ambrotypes and Daguerreotypes.

Mr Horn is a Painter by profession, and invites public attention to his style of painting Photographs. These pictures EXCEL THE FINEST PAINTING UPON IVORY, and while they equal the works of the Masters in their delicacy and richness of coloring, far surpass them in exactness of delineation and PERFECT FIDELITY TO FEATURE express on and nature.

Friends, relatives and lovers may now rejoice in the possession of perfect likenesses, at a price that places them in the reach of all. Our painted Photographs are warranted to be all that is here represented and we guarantee them to preserve their color without fading, at least as long as paintings on Ivory.

Particular attention also paid to Ambrotypes and Daguerreotypes, and

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.
Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the light and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself, the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c, whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints, it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c, Sign and Fancy Painting.

They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. In regard to the character of the work got up by this the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior"

MEDICAL.

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c, &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their active powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is aching us daily from East, West, North and South, of wonderful cures they are preforming.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines.

The Rev Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas."

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores, is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr A J Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt, says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J Hatfield Frazer, Esq, editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N J, says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn, says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq, of Orient, Long Island, N. Y, says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev J S Swan, of New London, says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass. what the medicines will do, ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co, N Y, what the syrup has done for him, ask G P & W H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt, ask F L Kent, of Chicago, Ill, ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass, ask Wm F Keahles, or Wm P Benjamin, Esqs, of New London, ask Dr H M Murdock, of Pulaski, N Y, ask J C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y, who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate, ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N Y, who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum, ask Ohas Akin of Hume, N Y, what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N Y, what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

A CERTAIN, safe, and effectual remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure certain and permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands from the hands of merciless quacks, if not from premature graves. In cases of infections, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing safe cures. It contains no narcotic, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor and may be taken by persons of either sex, without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them, DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail. This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the system, restoring the patient to a perfect state of health and purity. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a cure and preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract of SARSAPARILLA.

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence of life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed—whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations.—It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one [illegible] gallon of Syrup Sarsa[illegible] made

TO THE MILLION!
READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill, June 29, 1855

I have used Prof Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex Senator United States

VINCENNES, Ind, June 10 1855

Prof O J Wood Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years, and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely, but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c, ——

July 1, 1854.

GARDNER, Me, June 22, 1855

Mr Dyer Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c,
DANIEL N MURPHY

St Louis March 7, 1855

Prof. Wood —My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A C WILLIAMSON,
183 Second Street

St Louis, June 23, 1855

Prof Wood —As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it I will state that my hair was a few months ago, very grey, and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c,
